A Weberian Approach to the European Crisis: Why "Spirit"

The Holy Spirit is understood as God's presence via an essence filling the immensity of space and enabling God to know what is going on (in this sense, the Spirit is likened to electricity). The Holy Ghost is understood as the third god in the polytheistic Mormon doctrine of the gods. The Holy Ghost is a "spirit man" and can only be at one place at one time. Christianity disagrees, based ...

CULTURE MATTERS 1. FoREwoRd Culture is the prism through which we understand the world and the tool by which we shape it. It is also the path along which we open up to other people, to the great diversity of meanings and experiences. It is much more than monuments, performing arts and books " culture is who we are. It is a wellspring of imagination, a source of belonging at a time of change ...
